Iowa Falls Chief Denies Report of Arrest at Alden

IOWA FALLS, Ia., Aug. 28.—(Special.)—"Not guilty," says Chief of Police K. C. Curtis of this city, in the pleading refused by the report emanating from Alden to the effect that he was arrested there last Monday and arraigned in justice court for a violation of the automobile laws. Chief Curtis has been a strict adherent to the enforcement of the law as well as the spirit of the law governing the operation of automobiles and many have been taken in tow for not living up to the strict interpretation of the traffic laws of the state and city. His position in these matters naturally added more local interest to the report that he had been found wanting and readily prompted many comments from those concerned with the law. However, Chief Curtis denies that he has ever been arrested and states that while he may have been riding in an auto that he was not equipped with numbers, etc., he cannot see how he should be held liable.
He was with Justice Wheeler at the time the arrest was made and promptly furnished the bail bond required for appearance in Judge Purdy's court in Alden last Monday.

SECRETARY OF WAR GARRISON IN OMAHA

Here to Look Into Conditions of Fort Crook and Fort
Omaha.

SAYS LOCAL POSTS ARE SMALL
Has Been Inspecting Others Ten Times as Large.

LITTLE INTEREST IN THE ARMY Distinguished Guest Laments Public's Concern in Its Fight

NOT GREETED WITH Dress Maneuvers at Fort Crook Not Performed Because of Troops Are Away on Iowa Border

Secretary of War Garrison, General Aleahire and party inspecting Fort Crook and supply depot early yesterday morning, looking into the condition of the building minutely. The secretary declined to pass any comment except to say that he found Fort Crook in good condition. "For economical purposes," he said, "the buildings are too widely scattered. What I mean is, that if we were starting all over again we could save money by closer construction on a different plan, but we have to take things as we find them."

"How does Fort Crook compare with the other posts you have been examining?" asked a reporter.

"Just about as you would compare with Jack Johnson," came the answer. "Fort Crook has 545 acres in the reservation, while I have been looking at posts with 5,000 and 6,000 acres."

"No, I cannot give any of my conclusions. In fact, I am not going to have any conclusions until I have finished my tour of inspection."

Prescription for Divorce Evil.

The secretary declined point blank to talk about Mexico, Japan or any other pending issue. He was willing to discuss the divorce evil and expressed the opinion based on his experience as a judge that 90 per cent of the divorces today were due to industrial and financial difficulties and not dissensions over matters of morality. "Fix it so that the wife can have a fair share of the income for the household and insure the adequacy of the income and the divorce evil will drop to small proportions," he said.

In the afternoon Garrison, his wife and the army headquarters building were inspected. The party was scheduled to leave for Fort Snelling, Minn., at 8:10 last night.

Army Needed to Keep Peace.

"Throughout the entire country there is a wonderful lack of interest in the army," said Secretary Garrison in a short talk at luncheon at the Commercial club at noon. "No one can be more inclined to ward the settlement of international disputes by arbitration than I am. But decree of no use unless there is some power that can enforce them. A man does not yield to the judgment of a court that has ruled against him because he believes that the judge has been all wise and has decided properly in all cases. It is only because back of the decree of the court is the whole power of the state. And back of a supreme court decree is the whole power of the United States. Therefore if our decrees are to be operative there must be that force that overcomes opposition. Without that a decree becomes mere formality."

Would Establish Reserve.

The secretary spoke of the army as a nucleus around which an effective fighting organization must be built in time of actual war. He outlined possible plans for strengthening the system, and said "We propose to change the enlistment contract of the men so that at the end of twelve or twenty-four months the soldier, if he has received sufficient training in that time, may leave the army subject to recall for the rest of his period of enlistment, thus creating a reserve force."

Not Greeted by Dress Parade.

Secretary Garrison on his tour of inspection of Fort Crook was accompanied by W. F. Baxter, J. I. Kennedy, General F. A. Smith, J. M. Guild, Major C. F.
Hartman and Victor Rosewater, acting as a reception committee for the city of Omaha, and General Ayleshire and Captain Shindler, of the secretary's aide.

The party left in automobiles and went directly to Fort Crook, where the secretary made a detailed inspection of the fort. As the post is not fully garrisoned and the secretary's time is limited, no dress parade or military maneuvers were performed.

At Fort Omaha the same program was followed. The signal corps was sta- tioned at the post to be transferred, and it is thought a troop of infantry will be installed there. Secretary Garrison would say nothing about the prospective changes.

The secretary also refused to mention the Mexican matter. "I think President Wilson's message was admirable, every word of it," he said, "but I will make no assertions or admissions with regard to actions in the Mexican affair. The president will act as he thinks best when the time comes."

Showing All the Cards

COWBOYS PLANNING REVENGE

Sutherland Druggist Weds Miss Veronica Wetzel.

AUTO HONEYMOON THWARTED

Detective Eddie Fleming Fata Home Folks Wise, and What They Will Do Remains to Be Seen.

A romance teeming with western thrills, red blood and the kind of excitement that writers of western fiction love to rave about, reached the marriage point today, but tomorrow, before this is written to the end of the yarn, several incidents not usually found in ordinary love stories will be added to the adventures of the principal characters of the latest of Danny Cupple's comedies.

Miss Veronica Wetzel, pretty and 21, and champion horsewoman of western Nebraska and Colorado, met Axel W.
Peterson, a Sutherland druggist at a roping and riding contest in Ogallala a year ago. When Miss Wetzel threw her "larrikin" she not only scored a point on the contest judge's card, but captured Peterson's heart as well. Miss Wetzel was born in Sutherland, but lately has made her home in Greeley, Colo.

Yesterday Peterson loaded his automobile with tents and supplies to last three weeks, and told his friends that he intended to stay three weeks in the Nebraska hills. Instead, he drove to North Platte and put his loaded car in a garage there.

His next move was to board an Omaha bound train upon which was Miss Wetzel, and when they arrived here they looked up County Judge Bryce Crawford.

Eddie Fleming Best Man.

Eddie Fleming, now a city detective, used to "punch" cattle in the western country and knows the couple well, so it was natural that he should be asked to "stand only across the ceremony."

Incidentally, he learned all about their plans and the manner in which they tricked their Sutherland friends, and Fleming then brought to light a streak of downright meanness in his disposition.
To Jack Veatch, cowboy and practical joker of Sutherland, he dispatched a telegram signed "Peterson" asking that the loaded auto be taken from North Platte back to Sutherland. Veatch has already taken possession of the auto and is now in some mysterious manner the wedding certificate has also disappeared.
This document is now in the hands of "Bully" Bill Coker, another Sutherland cowboy.

Today the newlyweds will leave the Rome hotel, where they are stopping and go to North Platte to get the auto.

Thereby they learn that a trip to Sutherland will be necessary and when they get there—what is to happen may only be guessed by those who happen to have intimate knowledge of what tricked cowboys are capable of.

Peterson is a graduate of the Creighton Pharmaceutical college here and is well known. Omahans who attend western shows will also remember Miss Wetzel.

ASSEMBLY RECOGNIZES GLYNN ACTING GOVERNOR

ALBANY, N. Y., Aug. 28.—Lieutenant Governor Martin H. Glynn was formally recognized as acting governor by the assembly early this morning, after a bitter debate. The vote in favor of such recognition stood 49 for 23 against.

FATHER OPERATES ON SON FOR APPENDICITIS

DENVER, Colo., Aug. 27.—Earl Perkins, 19 years of age, was operated upon for appendicitis yesterday by his father, Dr. J. M. Perkins, of this city; while his uncles, Drs. C. C. and E. B. Perkins, assisted in administering anesthetics.

Thaw Lawyer Goes to Quebec to Head Off Jerome and Kennedy

SHERBROOKE, Aug. 28.—Louis St.
Laurent, the lawyer retained by the Thaw family to defend Gentleman Roger Thompson, left Sherbrooke suddenly today for Quebec in an attempt to head off William Franklin Jerome and Deputy Attorney Franklin Kennedy of New York, who went to Quebec yesterday in an endeavor to enlist the aid of Sir Lomer Gouin, premier of the province of Quebec, in their efforts to deport Thaw.

While Mr. St. Laurent is not the most prominent of the Thaw defenders, his home is in Quebec and he is the only one of the Thaw legal contingent who is a liberal in politics. Sir Lomer Gouin is a liberal.

It is said Mr. Laurent bore messages from prominent liberal politicians here urging Sir Lomer Gouin not to interfere in the case.

Thaw devoted his day to letter writing.
He also sent a number of long telegrams.

Union Men Leave Pumps at Mines in Copper District

CALUMET, Mich., Aug. 28.—Union men working the pumps in the Mohawk mine were called out by the Western Federation of Miners last night and the shafts are again filling up with water. No mine pumps are now at work in any of the properties north of Calumet. Copper mine strikers and women attacked a Calumet and Hedia mine on his way to work this morning, but he was rescued by the militia. Strikers, 600 strong, paraded again and daily parades are now a feature.

Fire Department Officers Meeting

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—Fifty young men left fatherless by firemen who sacrificed their lives in the discharge of their duty, will unveil here on September 5 a firemen's memorial on Riverside drive at One Hundredth street. The children will be dressed in white, carrying bouquets of roses furnished by the park department. The event has been arranged in connection with the forty-first annual convention and exposition of the International Association of Fire Engineers, which will begin on Monday, to continue through the week.

A parade, reviewed by Mayor Garnor, will precede the unveiling. Fifteen hundred New York fire department officers and men, with twenty-two motor propelled pieces of apparatus and eighteen horse drawn machines and 2,000 volunteers from nearby towns with hand apparatus will participate.

During the week it is expected 1,300 fire department chiefs from cities of the United States, Canada, Europe, Australia and Africa will attend the session of the convention. Among the papers discussed will be:

"The Two Platons," by Chiefs F. L.
Stetson, Seattle, and Charles A. Salter of Omaha.

FOUR PERSONS KILLED BY COLLAPSE OF A BUILDING

PETERBORO, Ont., Aug. 28.—Four persons or more were killed and several injured in the collapse today of the J. C.
Turnbull company's store. The walls were weakened by alterations and gave way. A hundred workmen, clerks and shoppers went down in the crash.

SECOND NOTE FROM GAMBOA

Diplomat Comments Adversely on Offer to Recommend Loan.

ANSWER IS NOT ACCEPTABLE

Clause Quoted from Constitution Will Not Prevent Huerta from Becoming a Candidate for President.

MEXICO CITY, Mexico, Aug. 28.—The full text of the answer of Federico Gamboa, Mexican secretary of state for foreign affairs to the "second note" sent him by John Lind, President Wilson's confidential agent in Mexico, under date of August 25, was made public here today.

It contains several interesting clauses.
In one paragraph the Mexican diplomat quotes Mr. Lind's statement that President Wilson, "if Mexico acts immediately and favorably on the foregoing suggestions would express to American bankers assurances that the government of the United States would look with favor on the immediate loan to Mexico. Answering this Senator Gamboa begs to be excused from a direct reply for the time being, other than to say that this suggestion appears to be an attractive antecedent proposal to the end that, moved by petty interests, Mexico should renounce a right which incontrovertibly upholds the country at a time when the dignity of the nation is at stake.

"I believe," he adds, "that there are no loans enough to induce those charged by the law to maintain that dignity, to permit it to be lessened."

In another part of his lengthy note referring to the insistence of President Wilson that Huerta bind himself not to be a candidate for election to the presidency at the October elections, Gamboa quotes from the constitutional articles of the Mexican republic to prove that under these regulations "The secretary of state in charge of the executive power shall not be eligible to the office of either president or vice president when the elections shall take place."

This provision Senator Gamboa intimates, prevents Huerta from being a candidate.

Note Not Acceptable.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—Senator Gam-boa's note of August 25 had not been received officially here until today, but on a summary transmitted to Secretary Bryan by John Lind, administration officials declared the United States would not yield in its demand that Victoriano Huerta should not be a candidate for president of Mexico.

Senator Gamboa calls attention to a clause in the Mexican constitution which prohibits a provisional president from succeeding himself and charges that the United States was over-suspicious in thinking that Huerta would enter the race.

Administration officials here in answer to the point declared that to apply that clause of the constitution to Huerta was in fact a recognition of Huerta as the constitutionally chosen provisional president of Mexico, a circumstance they considered contradicted by irregularities at the time Huerta assumed office.

There is, in the view of administration officials here also no guarantee that Huerta does not intend resigning in favor of General Trevino or some other, so that he might become a candidate.
Government officials here furthermore called attention to what they construe as a flat declaration that Huerta intends to be a candidate, constitutional barriers notwithstanding. They point to the following paragraph in Senator Gamboa's first reply, saying:

"There is, in the view of administration
Huerta should agree not to appear as a candidate for the presidency of the republic in the coming election cannot be guaranteed."

A Word to Our Advertisers

To you merchants of this city who send your message each day to your customers through the columns of The Bee:

You have on your shelves the products of many manufacturers. How many of these manufacturers are using the one medium of advertising which you know to be the best—the daily newspaper—the medium that will bring customers for the goods on your shelves?

You have spent time and money proving that the daily newspaper is the chief avenue of advertising that brings customers.

Do you put in your best efforts working with the manufacturer who helps you—the manufacturer who advertises in local newspapers, the fact that you sell his product? You should.

Do you ever tell the manufacturer who does not use newspapers what you know about the value of newspaper advertising. You should.

Dealers and manufacturers interested in newspaper advertising can obtain advice and cooperation by writing to the Bureau of Advertising, American Newspaper Publishers' Association, World Building, New York.

Judge Reprimands Caminetti's Counsel

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 28.—At a conference today between Judge Van Fleet of the United States district court and attorneys for the government and for F.
Drew Caminetti, charged with a violation of the Mann white slave act, it was agreed that the government should dismiss the case tomorrow afternoon and an affidavit for the defense need be subscribed to appear before next Tuesday, when the trial will be resumed.

Those on hand early heard Judge Van Fleet severely reprimand Marshall Woodworth, chief counsel for the defense.

Counsel for the government called the attention of the court to an interview with Woodworth published yesterday, in which Woodworth was quoted as saying of the Mann act:

"It is ridiculous to suppose that the law was framed with the intention of making felons of youths like Drew Caminetti. Everybody knows that congress enacted that law for the purpose of checking commercialized prostitution.
Caminetti believed that the only way in which he could avoid disgrace for himself, his family and Miss Norris was to leave Sacramento for a time until public gossip had subsided. The Mann act is on trial today as much as F. Drew Caminetti."

When testimony was presented as to the renting of the bungalow in Reno, the defense sought to show that Diggins, not Caminetti, made the arrangements. Judge Van Fleet told counsel for the defense that for the purposes of the government it was sufficient to show the defendant was present at the transaction.

Caminetti's resignation as clerk of the state board of control was identified by the secretary of the board. It was written on a letter head of the Lotus saloon, Sacramento, and bore the date March 3.
It was scratched out and March 28 substituted. The flight to Reno took place after midnight, March 3.

Governor Favors Fewer Legislators and Longer Sessions

SIOUX CITY, Ia., Aug. 28.—Governor John H. Morehead, addressing the old settlers of Dakota county at Dakota City, Neb., today, advocated a reduction of the number of representatives in the state legislature, longer and more frequent sessions of the law-making bodies, employment of convict labor and the protection of the natural resources of the state. With a smaller body of men to make the laws, the men would be more efficient, more experienced in law-making and the expense to the state would be less, he said.

Democrats Agree to Higher Tax Rate on Larger Incomes

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—An inauspcious movement among democratic senators that threatened to break party lines on the income tax was headed off by the leaders today by an agreement to revise the tariff bill so as to levy a heavier tax on the incomes from large fortunes.

It is understood that democratic leaders have agreed to a revision of the income tax section so that the extra tax on incomes of more than $100,000 will be 5 per cent, with an increase reaching 10 per cent on incomes of $500,000.

NEBRASKA COMPLIMENTED AT KANSAS CITY MEETING

Nebraska was complimented in Kansas City by the chairman of the conference of bankers' committees on agricultural development on the fact that it has already started the movement for co-operation with farmers in the county demonstrator movement. Also, the chairman commented Nebraska on the law that was passed by the last legislature providing that county boards may appropriate funds for the county demonstrator work. W. R. Hughes of Omaha, Carson Hilbert of Franklin and George F. Sawyer of Western have returned from the conference in Kansas City. Thirty states were represented with an average of five delegates apiece.

ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY TEACHERS AT MEETING

About 150 school teachers have so far scrubbed at the meetings of the Douglas County Teachers' institute being held at the county house. The teachers held a meeting in the criminal court room this morning and a very interesting program was arranged. George Coupland, identifi-fied in educational work, addressed the meeting, asking the teachers to teach their pupils a love for plant life and agricultural pursuits.

The meetings were begun Monday and the week's work will conclude Friday.

Morgenthau Named For Turkish Post

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—The president today sent to the senate the following nominations:

Henry Morgenthau of New York to be ambassador to Turkey.
Minister resident and consul general to Liberta, George W. Buckner of Indiana.
Agent and consul general at Cairo, Egypt, Orley Arnold of Rhode Island.

CHANGING LOCATION—The Bee's Business office, now in the ground floor corner of The Bee Building, will soon occupy more commodious quarters on the first floor, reached by the main entrance of the building.
